INSTITUE SPOT ROUND FOR M.TECH. ADMISSIONS -2026

List of Vacancies in M.Tech. (Self-Finance) Programs

The National Institute of Technology invites applications for the Institute Spot Round Admissions 2026 (ISR-26) for M.Tech. (Self-Finance) programs for the Academic Year 2026–27. Candidates are advised to fill their choices carefully in the order of priority, based on their eligibility for specific M.Tech. programs in one or more departments. It is the responsibility of the candidate to ensure they meet the eligibility criteria for the programs they apply for. Prospective candidates are also advised to check the existing vacancies before registering on the ISR-2026 portal. Some additional vacant seats may be available at a later stage of Institute spot round. Therefore, candidates are also advised to fill-in their choices of seats irrespective of the vacancy status depending on their eligibility for specific M.Tech. specializations in one or more Departments.

Further, the candidates are instructed to read important instructions https://admissions.nitw.ac.in/impinstructions/ the information brochure https://admissions.nitw.ac.in/media/uploadsbyadmin/20260807_103825_isp_mt_sf_2026_b.pdf carefully.
